f-Confidential

1. Subject is identified in MGB-A-3961.
2. The picture allegedly taken in Munich was actually taken at the VOFO Beratungsstelle of DTLINEN, which is a part of DTLINEN actually controlled by ODOPAL and headed by Identity 1. Subject was promised faithfully that this picture is not for public consumption but only for the DTLINEN files. After he was shown the picture showing him in uniform which was taken in 1951, he then agreed to be photographed as part of the Beratungsstelle procedure, but only after he was promised that no non-DTLINEN member would ever be shown it.
3. Actually, since Subject went through the regular refugee processing centers there was no way for him to avoid the photographing and no objection to him doing this. However, publication of the picture sort of soured the leading personalities of CADROIT - because more persons than necessary now are aware of the true identity of Subject.
4. The only consoling aspect in this case, if there is such as thing in clandestine business, is the fact that it would have been hard to conceal his true identity in the long run anyhow.
